Dear Readers,

Haven't we often wondered about our discord and disconnect with the things that matter most to our children in the current times. All that seems to be the 'general norm' is often thwarted without any remorse! We take pride in their achievements but when it comes to accepting them as they are, we often fumble and falter.

Our children of today are technologically advanced, have a great affinity to texting and messaging on mobile apps and online platforms, have the capacity to absorb huge volumes of information, perceive most of the information visually, in short, they are DIGITAL KIDS.

Have we also noticed that our children seek a lot of independence, are very confident, are multitaskers, though accused of low attention spans they possess the 8-Second Filter to sift through their feeds and focus on what matters to them and are environmentally aware?

We are actually talking of Gen Zers! They are taking decisions in a VUCA world - a world that is not steady, not secure or guaranteed, not simple, not clear or even congruent at times.

To lead this generation better, we need solid role models, enable them to be resilient and resourceful, equip them to practice mindfulness and help them to be clear on what they want in life and focused on who they are.

Together, let's help our children navigate an absolutely new world that is in the process of evolution.

CPSWN TEACHER ATTENDS CAREER COUNSELLING WORKSHOP

An informative workshop on Career Counselling Laboratory and Emerging Career for the 21st Century was organized by Nagpur Sahodaya Complex at G.H. Rasoni College of Engineering on 23rd Nov '19. The day-long session was taken up by Mr. Ganesh Kohli, Founder IC3 Movement.

Attended by Mrs. Tarka Tokekar, a Science teacher at Centre Point School, Wardhaman Nagar, the workshop began on a very positive note with Mr. Kohli citing the example of his Mathematics teacher who was also his role model and who inspired him to become a teacher despite an engineering degree.

Emphasizing on the role of a teacher as a 'soul doctor', he emphasized that every interest or hobby had the potential of being converted into a career and thus, the role of a teacher in guiding students to choose a proper career was all important. He continued by throwing light on the fact that most discipline issues among students arise from their attention span being reduced from 4 hours to 4 seconds, making it necessary for teachers to activate them from their state of inertia. Later he linked this issue to the importance of counselling and setting up a Counselling Laboratory based on the L2 concept i.e. Laboratory and Library. This concept is unique as it does not expect a counsellor to provide solutions to students but encourages students to collect data and explore topics of their interest and liking. Thus, the role of a counsellor is not to provide a readymade solution but help the child to reach a plausible solution. Mr. Kohli laid emphasis on the importance of collaborating with technology before deciding on a career as he opined that careers evolve and therefore a career which is very popular today may not be a career choice tomorrow. He went on to give information about emerging career opportunities like Excess Capacity Breaker, Drone Manager and Wholeness Manager.

He spoke at length about the relevance of collaborative learning and RDD i.e. research, design and development. On a concluding note, Mr. Kohli drew a thoughtful parallel to re-iterate the importance of counselling in a student's academic life. He asked the attendees to remember that children without counselling are like aeroplanes without navigation. The attending teachers expressed their gratitude to Mr. Kohli for the enlightening workshop and hoped it would prove fruitful in their future counselling sessions with children.

COMMENDABLE PERFORMANCE BY CPSWN AT CBSE SCIENCE EXHIBITION

Centre Point School, Wardhaman Nagar presented a model of Integrated Farming Techniques called Sustainable Innovation for Progressive farmers (SIP) at the Regional level of the CBSE Science Exhibition which was venued at Bhavans Bhagwandas Purohit Vidya Mandir (BVM) on 29th and 30th Nov '19. The school was represented by two students, Vinit Kalra and Aryan Kothari (Class X) who presented their model which aimed at giving financial independence to a mediocre farmer.

The Regional CBSE Science Exhibition qualifiers

The sustainability of resources that were shown through the model stood on the 3 pillars of social, environmental and economical aspects. The innovative model aimed at improving the farm income along with reducing the carbon footprint in the farm. The model exhibited a mediocre farmer's land sized approx. 3.5 acres on which the farmer displays his workmanship skills by practicing farming and complimenting it with a fish tank and hydroponic section also known as aquaponic, a cow shed, a biogas plant, vermicomposting pit and a green fodder section. The cow dung as well as the cow urine was shown to serve the bio-gas plant. The slurry from the biogas plant served as the manure after it was sun dried not only for the farms but also the vermicompost section. The cow urine after fermentation with garlic, jaggery and gram flour served as a pesticide called Jevaamrut. The Azolla, a blue green alga also served as fodder for fish which enabled the destruction of harmful microorganisms in the pond. The fish pond connected to the hydroponics system to enable to and fro exchange of water.

The water requirement for the corn tray as well as the vermicompost pit were sufficed by sprinkling water from the fish tank. The farmers who hail from arid zones could use hydroponic farming in combination with millet farming which requires very less water. The crop pattern had been kept in mind and the farm had not been left vacant for even a day by the farmer. The model took care of the much needed water sustainability. The well recharge concept along with rainwater harvesting served this purpose. The solar panels over the cow shed sufficed the electricity requirement for the setup. The children also dealt with the carbon footprint emission for the above set apparatus and the calculations depicted this farm area to be carbon negative as the farmer worked with plants and trees. The neem trees acted as natural pesticides and also served as air purifiers. The teak trees shown along the fencing contributed to the profit as timber and finally bamboo plants provided the natural fencing for the land.

Thus the model showcased energy sustainability, resources sustainability, cost effectiveness and finally self sustainability. The model was highly appreciated by the judges present and the innovative farm exhibit could gather a huge crowd. The model crossed the Regional Level of the exhibition & was selected for the National Level which was held at Gurugram from 15th to 17th Jan '19. The students as well as the team of teachers including Mrs. Rupa Datta & Mrs. Sriporna Awasthi who contributed with all the valuable inputs were heartily congratulated by the management & staff of the school for their huge success.

MINI CONCERT BECOMES 'MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA' AT CPSWN

A spectacular mini-concert staged by the very talented performers of Classes IV and V on 21st Sept '19 had Centre Point School, Wardhaman Nagar reverberating with music of every note and Sur. The occasion was graced by Mrs. Mukta Chatterjee, Executive Director of CPS Group of Schools as well as special dignitaries and invitees from several schools across the city who were present along with the excited parents of the children who waited with bated breath to see their youngsters perform.

Aptly titled 'Musicology', every presentation beautifully revolved around music in all its nuances and its profound impact on us in our daily lives which are full of hustle and bustle and packed with chores. While some touched upon music as a gift of the heavens and the language of angels being strummed on harps and other musical instruments of yore, others focused on more modern adaptations of music like rapping, drumming and even creating some melodiously rocking tunes with buckets, cups and plates becoming musical instruments! Listening to soulful music showcased in the presentations on Sufi music and Qawwalis transported the audience to a whole new world altogether.

The subtle difference between string and percussion instruments was also depicted very creatively. Some classes staged dance dramas on the evolution of music and musical instruments like the shehnai while a few explored the length and breadth of our country to showcase the importance of music in Indian festivals and its role in uniting the country and even bringing families from different ethnic backgrounds together. No presentation themed on music would be complete without looking at it as a stress buster and a mood enhancer, spreading peace and happiness to all who hear it.

Every presentation that lit up the stage had the audience lauding the talented artists and the voice-overs with big rounds of applause. Mrs. Chatterjee was also all praise for the creativity and out-of-the-box thinking that had gone into each presentation which ensured that every aspect of music was covered. She appreciated the team work displayed by all the departments working behind the scenes and opined that the success of any show depended on the music, dance and art teachers working in perfect tandem with each other. Ma'am also highly appreciated the efforts, hard work and ingenuity of all the class teachers without which nothing would spell success. Last but not the least, she acknowledged the invaluable support of the parents whose presence made the occasion very special for their children.

He mentioned, "I have never let my schooling interfere with my education." CPSWN HOLDS BIENNIAL SPORTS DAY

Speed, Stamina & Skill

The Biennial Sports Day of Centre Point School, Wardhaman Nagar, held on 19th Dec '19 was a riot of colours, games, drills and races. Centered round the principal theme of "FITNESS" in keeping with our Hon'ble Prime Minister's vision of a Fit and Healthy India, the sports day was the brilliant climax of a year full of inter-house competitions and races peppered by amazing Drills and brilliant Marches.

In attendance were the Chief Guest, PI, Pardi Police Station, Mr. Shivaji Chavan,

Executive Director, CPS Group of Schools, Mrs. Mukta Chatterjee and Principal Mrs. Sumathi Venugopalan and Vice Principals. Shri Chavan accepted the salute of the contingents of the four Houses and the Sports squad led by the School Captain Anshul Kamble.

Thereafter 6 outstanding athletes Yatharth Puneekar, Musaibuddin Ansari, Anvesh Thaokar, Harshita Jhavar, Divyesh Kewte and Mansi Pugalia lit the 'mashaal' followed by the release of balloons by P. I. Chavan, symbolizing the commencement of the sports day. The Judges for the March-Past were Subedar Jagdish Bhatt, Naik Pradeep Chauhan and Naik Tam Singh – all veterans in drill instruction from the National Defence Academy.

A band performance led by the Band Marshal Pranav Khati had an impressive 70 students playing not only flutes, drums and cymbals but also the Darbuka (or the goblet drum) for the first time in perfect synchronization. This year, a conscious effort was made to infuse classical music as the flavor of the day. These included Indian, Western as well as Fusion Music by various maestros such as Ustad Zakir Hussain, Pandit Hari Prasad Chaurasia, Pandit Shiv Kumar Sharma, Shri Mahesh Kale, Grammy awardee Anoushka Shankar and many more.

Befittingly the first Drill was based on Yoga wherein the calm winter morning was given due respect by some students of Class 7 performing the Yoga Drill. They demonstrated why the best way to kick start our day is with a soothing Suryanamaskar, since the sun is considered the source of every creation on this earth, giving energy and positive vibrations. They stunned with various aasanas done in perfect synchronization such as vrikshasaan, triconaaasan, vajraaasan etc. Some students performed group yoga wherein they showed stunning yogic postures showcasing their balance, suppleness and concentration. This was followed by a Martial arts demo showcasing rhythm in martial arts.

They were followed by students performing the Kalaripayattu Drill displaying a system of scientifically arranged and well graded series of exercises for achieving maximum physical agility formulated by the ancient masters. Some students performed with a stick called THE TURA which almost seemed like an extension of their bodies!

The Mallakhamb Demo took everyone's breath away! 50 students from Classes 6 to 9 executed various postures on two Mallakhamb both almost 9 feet in height. The children climbed the Mallakhamb and did gravity defying stunts on it. Interspersed with flat races and hurdles in between, the Class 6 drill was based on Aerobics which is a rhythmic form of exercise leading to ultimate fitness. Definitely more interesting than the conventional form of exercise, aerobics is an ideal choice when one wants to develop more stamina and flexibility with an overdose of fun! The Class 6 students displayed an array of styles like simple stretching, free style aerobics and step aerobics.

Next up was the Gymnastics demo-synonymous with balance, agility, grace, flexibility, concentration and perfection. The supple movements were a sight for sore eyes. The young students bent it like Beckham as if there's no tomorrow. Blended with music by Tauseef Qureshi's band, this demonstration was hugely appreciated. The next unique event was the parent's race. So accustomed to running behind their kids, parents participated with full enthusiasm and sportsman's spirit cheered heartily by their children. The support staff also participated in their fancy races with gusto.

The Class 8 drill was a melange of the dumbbell – where one gets a full-body multi-planar workout with cardio-respiratory benefits and flexibility to the tune of karnatic music by Mahesh Raghavan and Shravan Shridhar followed by the Lezim drill -a perfect blend of culture, grace and vibrancy with our earthy dancers. It was a note-worthy fact that our school stressed on breaking and smashing all gender stereotypes, where our girls performed a strength based drill and boys performed on a more rhythmic one.

The most nail-biting sporting events were the Junior and Senior Relays with the participants raring to go and bring glory to their houses. While Red House won the Junior Relay for Boys and Girls, Yellow House emerged the champs in the Senior Relay for Girls and Red House for Girls.

The culminating act of the day was the Class 9 Navy Drill. The discipline, the dedication, the passion was evident in their stride and their dignified carriage as the young naval officers in their pristine white uniforms marched in unison, step by step. Not a foot faltered as they executed varied formations in the blink of an eye. Before the drill came the Hornpipe Dance – vibrant and symbolic of the lighter side of Navy life.

And finally to bring the curtains down on the morning's proceedings, Mrs. Chatterjee awarded the top prizes for team events as well as the Discipline and Championship Trophy. She was all praise for the wonderfully executed programme which was presented with clock-work precision and for the tremendous hard work of the teachers and the Sports Department which spelled sweet success for all. Of course, she hugely appreciated the enthusiasm and hard work of the students who underwent rigorous practice and also the immense invaluable support of all the parents. While winners smiled with elation, others also dispersed bubbling with sporting spirit and pledging to give their best the next time. It was Red House which very proudly lifted the Championship Trophy at the end of the day. The March Past Trophy was jointly won by Red and Yellow House while Blue House was awarded the Discipline Trophy. The other trophies bagged by different Houses for various team events include: Football (Boys) : Green House, Football (Girls) : Yellow House, Basketball (Boys) : Red House, Basketball (Girls) : Blue House, Tug of War (Girls) : Yellow House, Tug of War (Boys) : Yellow House, Cricket (Mixed) : Green House, Roll Ball (Boys) : Blue House, Roll Ball (Girls): Red House, Karate (Girls) : Red House, Karate (Boys) : Green House.

Beginning with a base made of paper, they carefully shaped it into a perfect model of Ganesha and even used eco-friendly material for the decoration. Similar models were created and presented to the families of participating students and the joy of taking them home could be seen on their faces. The Visarjan was finally completed in artificial tanks set up by the NMC at Futala Lake.

Knowing that they had contributed in a small but significant way towards a safer and healthier environment left the Good Samaritans feeling satisfied and on cloud nine!

CPSWN STUDENTS TAKE UP LAKE CLEANING WITH ZEAL

It was all about doing their good deed for the day and the zealous Centre Pointers from Wardhaman Nagar took up the initiative with a lot of gusto. They trooped down to the Futala Lake on 13th Sept '19 to begin a challenging task – cleaning up the lake polluted with all kinds of waste. Armed with garbage bags in gloved hands, the students were horrified to find the place littered with plastic and food waste as well as Ganesh idols floating in the water. It was shocking to see trash cans and dustbins empty while garbage lay all around them! With determination writ large on their faces, the youngsters divided themselves into groups and began a systematic clean-up drive of a large section of the lake. They were surprised to see groups of people immersing Ganesh idols in front of their eyes. When requested not to do so, some readily agreed while others simply refused! Nonetheless, the young volunteers managed to convince them to use eco-friendly idols and immerse them in artificial tanks.

CPSWN STUDENTS ENLIGHTENED ON CYBER CRIMES AND CYBER SAFETY

The advancement in Technology has made people increasingly dependent on the Internet because it provides us with easy access to online shopping and payments, online study, online relationships and, of course, the omnipresent Social Media. However, with the boons come the banes – a variety of crimes like Email frauds, social media crimes, mobile app related crimes, data theft, net banking/ATM frauds, etc. Ensuring that maximum utility with safety becomes our guiding principle when we enter the cyber universe is thus a prime concern. With school children being as susceptible as adults - easily attracted and influenced, seeking comfort in online company and appreciation and ignoring obvious warnings and safety norms – a special 'eye opener' session on cyber safety was arranged for Class IX students at Centre Point School, Wardhaman Nagar on 19th Oct '19 to educate them and teach them how to protect themselves against such crimes. The initiative, taken up by the school's Cyber Safety Cell had two luminaries namely ACP, Nagpur Police, Shri Nilesh Bharne and Mr Rakesh Kriplani specially invited to throw light on being cyber-safe in this day and age. While Shri Bharne heads a special cell of the Nagpur police to look into cyber crimes, fake news and rumour mongering, Mr. Kriplani is a renowned cyber psychologist with 18 years of experience.

Both the esteemed speakers enlightened the students on the Dos and Don'ts of navigating the cyber world with the help of lucid examples and cautioned them on the dangers lurking behind the scenes and how to safeguard themselves against them. The interactive session definitely left the students more awakened and aware of the digital world they live in – and ultimate feeling safer! Mrs. Sumathi Venugopalan, the school Principal thanked the speakers on behalf of the school and especially the students for taking up such an informative and useful session. CPSWN STUDENTS TAKE A STEP TOWARDS A BRIGHTER DIWALI

We Care.....

Nothing can equal a smile that lights up a happy face when generous, benevolent hands come forward to present a touching gift. And it was heartwarming to see a sea of faces lit up with smiles on 22nd Oct '19 as students and teachers at Centre Point School, Wardhaman Nagar came together to make the festival of Diwali a truly joyous occasion for the support staff of the school. The youngsters of Class X began in full earnest as they encouraged children, young and old to make a generous donation of diyas, sugar and oil packets which they collected from Classes 1 to 3, Classes 4 to 8 and Classes 9 to 12 respectively. With sweet packets added on behalf of the teachers, the creatively and thoughtfully packaged packets were ready to be gifted. The eventful

CPSWN 'GREEN AMBASSADORS' CONVEY NOBLE MESSAGE

Adding to the water wastage and its blatant misuse these days is its pollution, especially during celebration of festivals like Ganesh Visarjan when heaps of plastic and POP are dumped into water bodies. Realizing that creating awareness about water management is the need of the hour, Class 11 students of Centre Point School, Wardhaman Nagar presented a skit to prevent people from polluting water bodies and preserving its pristine state.

The skit, presented in the typical 'Mumbaiya' slang in front of members of the Rotary Club and the senior school students was an excellent way of inculcating effective water conservation habits among youngsters and adults.

The play encouraged them to make use of pots at home to undertake Visarjan or make an eco-friendly Ganesha with a small seed inside in it to grow into a small sapling. Greatly inspired by these ideas, many school students bought eco-friendly Ganeshas or made their idols at home.

The enthused performers were on cloud nine and felt so proud of being a part of something worthwhile and doing their bit to protect Mother Earth in such a creative way. Such was their enthusiasm that learning their dialogues in the challenging Mumbaiya slang didn't seem an uphill task for them and they enjoyed it thoroughly. Loaded with humour, the comic element blended beautifully with the moral message conveyed by the play and left the viewers entertained and really impressed.

The performers and their teachers-in-charge were lauded by the management and staff of the school for their creative efforts in sending out a strong message which would surely contribute to saving our endangered planet.

All the DFC volunteers from across the globe participated in the flash mob. Most of the children wore their traditional attire. Watching them dance to the tune of DFC anthem 'Kar Dhamaka' was a sight to behold. The energy among the students was electrifying. Our students enthusiastically befriended most of the children present there, clicking photographs and exchanging contact numbers.

Many of them gifted each other goodies and some presents brought from their respective countries. The founder of Design for Change organization, Mrs. Kiran Bir Sethi also addressed and congratulated the students and their accompanying mentors for making this movement by the students such a grand success.

The Indian Ambassador to Italy, Ms, Reenat Sandhu and The Head of the Catholic Congregation, Rome too addressed the gathering. Over the next two days i.e. 28th-29th of November different stories of change were presented through the mini 'Be The Change' videos. For the summit to run smoothly, story presentations were held at various venues in Rome. For this purpose, students were divided into batches of 200-250 students for one venue. Thirteen stories of change were presented at our venue, Istituto Gerini. Countries which presented their stories were: India, The USA, Poland, France etc.

The stories presented by Centre Point School, Katol Road were 1) Creating an Urban Oasis 2) Be Safe: Follow Traffic Rules.

For each story presentation a small video of three minutes, showcasing the work done by students was played. This was followed by a question answer session. The students shared happily with the audience the objective of their work, the challenges faced and the future of the work done by them. The stories were well received and appreciated by the audience. Students of CPS Katol Road also got an unprecedented opportunity to mingle with students from other countries and the process was helped by some energizing icebreakers.

The last day was the most awaited day of the summit, as the students were supposed to be addressed by The Pope.

The closing ceremony took place inside a gargantuan auditorium inside The Vatican City. The Pope was gifted a flag made by stitching cloth pieces on which art work was done by the students of various schools. The art work represented the individualistic culture of different nations. In the end The Pope encouraged and appreciated the work done by the students of the world. In addition to the brilliant experience at the Global Summit, the students also got an opportunity to visit places having historical monuments including The Colosseum, the Roman Forum, the Pantheon, world's smallest country, The Vatican City, it's museums, the Sistine Chapel and so on.

The students returned motivated and inspired, that if we decide to do something; we can surely bring about a Change. So the motto, they now believe in is 'I Can, you can, together we can'.

Let's All Meet Up Sometime

Ananya Verma XII E
CPS Katol Road

Let's all meet up sometime
Let's bring back those days
Let's laugh like we used to
Let's revive our old ways

Let's catch up with the present
Re-living moments of the past
Let's impact the future together
And be in harmony at last

Let's defeat the distances
And fight 'not-talking-anymore'
Let's never be too busy to care
Let's be stronger than before

A quick call or text
Works like a charm
Knowing that someone cares
From many a city afar

Let's play again like we used to
Let's continue the drama and fuss
Let's deny the obvious fact
Time has made on us

We'll never be the same again
Growing up is serious crime
Yet, picking up the pieces
Let's all meet up sometime

News@CPS will be back again with Glimpses of Achievements, Activities, Artwork & Compositions of Centre Pointers.
